

PASADENA TOURNAMENT of ROSES

Sally M. Bixby

Tournament of Roses Vice President Sally Bixby has been a volunteer member of the Tournament of Roses Association since 1989. She will serve as president for the 2013 Tournament of Roses, providing leadership for the 124th Rose Parade and the 99th Rose Bowl Game on January 1, 2013. Throughout her extensive Tournament career, Bixby has served on various committees and was chairman of three of them including Queen and Court, Decorating Places and the Host Committee before being elected to the Executive Committee in 2005.

Professionally, Bixby is the Director of Surgical Services at the City of Hope National Medical Center and Beckman Research Institute. In addition to her 19 years of volunteer service in the Tournament of Roses, Bixby is a board member for the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Foundation, has been a board member for the Wellness Community Foothills and is an Executive Committee member and Treasurer for the Association of Operating Room Nurses, Los Angeles Chapter. She is also a member of the San Marino League, Women of Pasadena, the Operating Room Nursing Council of California, the Association of California Nurse Leaders, the Association of Nurse Executives, the American Nurses Association of California and the National Organization of the American Nurses Association.

A Pasadena native, Bixby is the daughter of Herb and Betty Maas. She attended Pasadena public schools through high school. She earned her R.N. from Pasadena City College and her Bachelors of Science and Master of Science in Health Care Administration from California State University, Los Angeles. She and her husband Harlan have three children, Hayden, Ryan and Parker, and six grandchildren, Evan, Quinn, McKenna, Madeline, Parker and Duncan. Bixby enjoys biking, golf, gardening and cooking.
